FOR STUDENTS, BY STUDENTS
SANGIOVANNI-GEISER LABORATORY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

About

The Undergraduate Fellows and Scholars of the SanGiovanni-Geiser Laboratory at the University of Arizona invite you to join our Professional Enrichment Series. This series is founded by undergraduate scholars of the Mechanistic Studies Branch, Integrative Omics Branch, and Physiological Imaging Branch.

This enrichment series is aimed to provide guidance from professionals throughout and beyond the biomedical health field. Guest speakers are invited to elaborate on their past experiences, passions, and goals as they engage with students in sharing key lessons along their professional paths.

We encourage you all to ask questions and not to be afraid of challenge and insight.
